

Summer in Germany

Germany is a great country with big developed town, ancient castles and beautiful nature. Each city has its own history which can be seen in everyday live and architecture.

My first trip was a Harz weekend.(26.06.15 - 28.06.15)
The most memorable was the old train on which we went to mountain. I also liked the walk through the woods. Great forest in the fog after rain striking in its beauty. We have passed more than 25 kilometers. Thank to this trip, I know that I can walk long distances in any weather. I also liked museum in Goslar, where we was after forest.

My next trip was a Kiel weekend (03.07.15 - 05.07.15)
It was the best weekend in this summer. I liked that everything was very well organized. We had a lot of different entertainment. Most of all I like canoeing and Sailing tour. I met many new friends and I hope that in the future we will continue to communicate. This city is too far away and I learned to navigate at train stations and bus stops. It was a good experience for my next trip.

My third trip organized Iaeste was a Bremen weekend. (24.07.15 - 26.07.15)

This weekend was very rainy and cold. Subsequently, we had to change the plans for this weekend. Instead, the stadium and sports events we were at the bowling alley and bars. We talked, listened to music,singing. Despite the weather, this weekend was also very good and interesting.

I would like to say thank you to all the organizers, all weekend was well planned and had a lot of intresting activities. This weekends helped me to become better acquainted with German culture, I saw many beautiful historic sites and met many new friends.

Many tickets have been lost due to various reasons. Weekend in Bremen, I paid cash without a receipt. I will be happy if i get a grant.

When I had not laeste weekend, I was traveling alone. I was in Bremerhaven, Minden, Bielefeld, Dusseldorf, Gelsenkirchen, Berlin, Hanover.

The most incredible thing for me was to go to the concert of one the most famous groups. AC/DC concert was in Gelsenkirchen. It was the first time in my life I saw so many people. Everyone was very friendly and I met a lot of new friends.

Next weekend I met with friends from a concert in Berlin. We was in different museum. We rented bikes and we visited many interesting and historic places, there are Berlin Wall, Brandenburg Gate, Reichstag, Alexanderplatz, olympic stadium, the most beautiful for me it is Berlin Cathedral and other place.

I am happy that I have the courage to travel alone. I feel confident in new places, a good guide at train stations and cities and can to use a map. Now I have many friends from different countries.

This is my first time in Europe and I am happy that I came here.
