General student bodies at TH OWL

AStA (General Students' Committee)
Fachschaft (Students' Council)

AStA „General Students’ Committee)

- student self-administration - by students for students.
- at all 3 locations
- presents the interests of the students

- Offers sports activities, evening programs, store for study supplies, rental of the AStA van, ...

Fachschaften (Students’ council)

In university politics, students can have a say in what happens at their university!

The student representatives are there to help the members of their department in their day-to-day studies. They serve as a point of contact for problems and conflicts within the course of study and organize events and offers of the respective department, such as get-to-know-each-other evenings for first semester students.

International Student Guide

Welcome to the TH OWL

The International Office of TH OWL warmly welcomes you! On this page we will provide you with a first orientation of how to apply and have a successful start in your studies with us. You will find all relevant information about studying and living in OWL below. Of course, if you have any additional questions, you can always contact us. Just reach out!

New Student Pre-Arrival Infosessions

The International Office is offering Online Infosessions for new international students, who would like to prepare for their arrival in OWL. You will receive information for your first steps for arrival, as well as tips on what you can already do from your home country to prepare a successful start in OWL. The infosessions will be offered in German as well as in English. You can choose, which infosession you would like to attend. It is not needed to register beforehand. Just click on the link to join the online session on the mentioned date. Below you can see the info sessions offered:

Outlook:

Please check for all up-coming on campus events and further online sessions on our I.O. website!

Thank You!

Please feel free to ask questions by raising your hand or in the chat 😊
