

Dear students,

the following information about exam registrations in summer semester 2021:

Starting this semester, you can register for the exams online via the QIS server:

Register at <https://www.th-owl.de/studium/im-studium/pruefungen/>.

You must have received the login data after your enrollment.

If the online registration does not work for any reason, you also have the option of registering or withdrawing from me at the examination office at: sandra.hinnenberg@th-owl.de (in the specified registration period).

Registration for exams for summer semester 2021 starts on:

June 1st, 2021 and registration deadline is July 1st, 2021.

The examination schedule with the examination dates, date, time, etc. can be found here on the examination office website:

<https://www.th-owl.de/gestaltung/studium/pruefungsaemter/pruefungsamts/MID> (Facade and Computational Design)

Due to the current situation regarding the corona pandemic, the exams will take place digitally. You can find the type of examination for the respective examinations in the examination schedule.

If you do not yet have a certificate, please contact the user service.

Best regards and good luck with your exams
