

Internship in Germany _ Weekend trips

Weekend #1 _ 08.08.2015 _ Hanover

My first trip was one-day visiting Hanover. I traveled alone from Detmold to Hanover, but I met there with my friend from Serbia, Anka. We spent very nice day in Hanover.

I traveled from Detmold to Bielefeld by train, and than from Bielefeld to Hanover by bus. It was the same when I was coming back from Hanover at the evening.

When I came to Hanover, and met with Anka, firstly we went to visit Herrenhausen. Garden was beautiful.

After Herrenhausen, we went back to city center, and took "The Red Thread". That was great city tour, that you can do on your own, just following red line on street.

If you follow that red line, you can see all important buildings, tourist attractions and other nice things in Hanover.

We visited old city center. After that we also visited Rathaus, which is very impressive building close the lake.

Weekend #2 _ 15.08.2015 _ Herford

My second weekend trip was trip to Herford with Adam who is also intern at University, and two Adam's friends. We visited there Marta Herford Museum. That was very interesting to see. Building was designed by famous architect Frank Gehry.

Weekend #3 _ 21.08.-23.08.2015 _ Dresden

The best weekend so far was Dresden weekend! It was organized by IAESTE LC Dresden, and they organized it great. Whole weekend was planned very well and we had a lot of interesting activities.

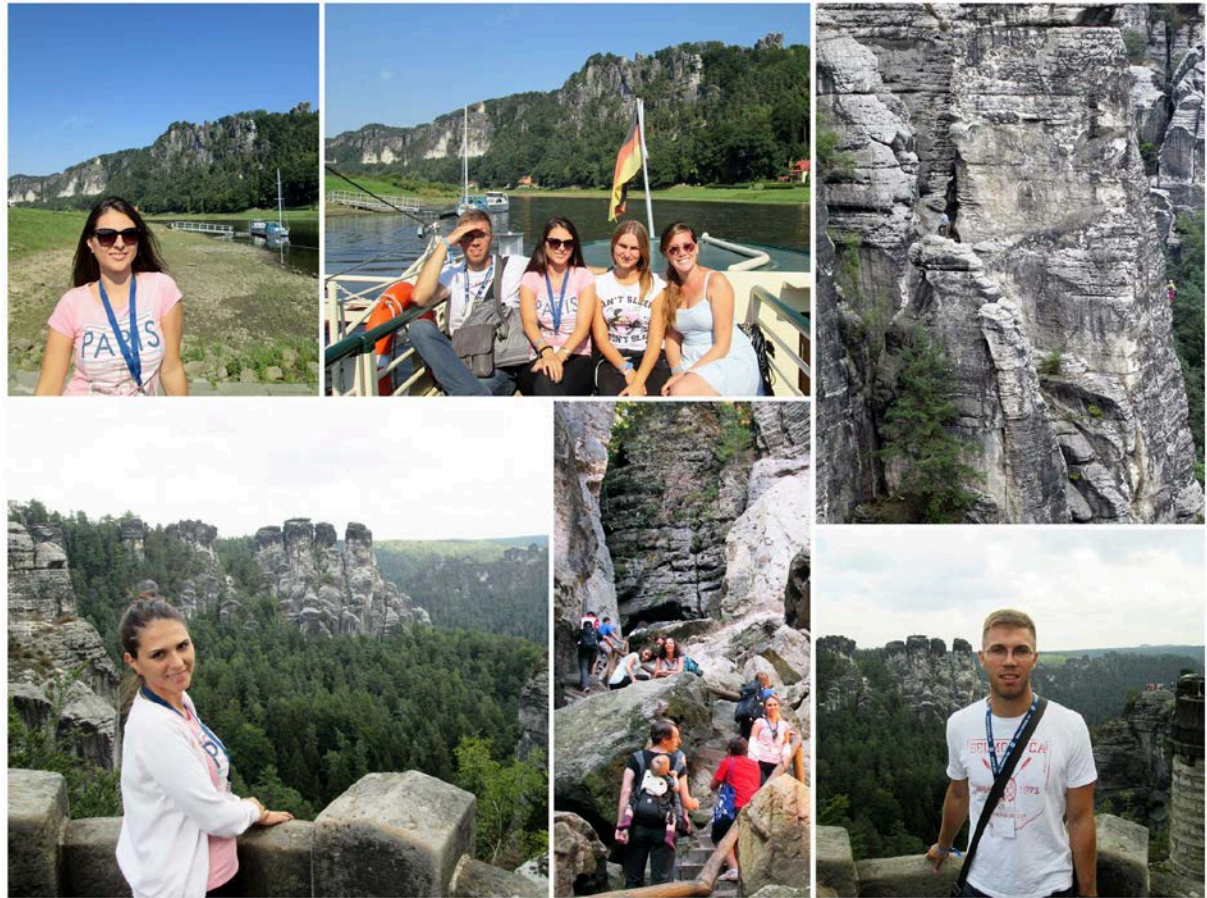

First day we were visiting city center. Dresden is beautiful city, with very interesting architecture.

We saw famous Frauenkirche, Zwinger, and also we were walking through city center. At the afternoon we visited Pilnitz Palace, and come back to city by boat. It was very nice!

At the evening we had great party at Kiezclub.

Next day we went to Saxon Switzerland National Park. We were hiking there. Landscape there are very nice.

I met great people in Dresden. The whole weekend was really great! 😊

Next weekend I'll visit Frankfurt. Looking forward to see more beautiful places in Germany during September, too.
